

To Whom It May Concern,

We wish to warmly recommend Shlofta's improvisational workshop. The members of Shlofta led our 25 international students in their spring orientation activity.

The activity focused on getting students to saying YES to each other and to open lines of communication.

To their credit, helping 25 students with different linguistic and national backgrounds to feel open and free to express themselves in front of each other is quite a feat, the facilitators did so effortlessly.

Our students developed a deeper sense of camaraderie, which has carried over into the classroom, thanks to this fantastic workshop.

Sincerely,
Chaya Benyamin
Program Manager
The International MA program in Middle Eastern Studies
Tel Aviv University